

KWEERING UP NAPTOWN

"We the people of Kweering Up NapTown, in order to form a more perfect Queer Union, establish in this city a forum for expression through Art in every medium with not-for-profit support, and DIY ethics; so that we may secure the bounty that is everyday Queer Life and share the richness that our community brings forth with all who attend."

PRESENTS

SOCE THE ELEMENTAL WIZARD

Soce, the elemental wizard is the Jewish, Gay, White MC. A computer programmer on Wall Street by day...Level 27 Hip Hop Spellcaster by night! He has been described as the male Lil' Kim and the white Eminem. Soce has been on MTV, VH1, Logo, HERE and in The Source, URB, Out magazine and numerous German, Austrian and Swiss magazines, as well as being interviewed live on WNYC 93.9 FM and Sirius Satellite Radio, on OutQ 106, Raw Dog Comedy 104 and Shade 45 (where he recently won their first ever gay hip hop battle).

NICKY CLICK

Nicky Click is made up of several character's and alter egos. She attributes her "cousin" Petunia Pie with writing all her songs from her diary entries. The characters within Nicky Click are actually all the many sides and parts of her, the ones she wants to hide, the ones she is ashamed of, the sexy sides, the smart sides. In presenting these various faces to audiences and listeners, Nicky Click hopes that viewers will feel as though there is an opportunity to break down walls of limitation.

8 INCH BETSY

8 Inch Betsy is a Chicago-based rock/pop/punk band. Recently they have teamed up with 307 Knox Records to record their sophomore album "The Mean Days" due out in spring 2010. 8 Inch Betsy has been linked to the Queercore scene and has played with artists such as The Gossip, Bitch and the Exciting Conclusion, Tender Forever, Team Gina, and Athens Boys Choir, to name a few. While the members identify as queer, the music itself claims no label.

More information on these artists and a whole lot more at www.myspace.com/kweeringupnaptown